2nd Annual Bark! Bark! Bark! For Our Park!

East Norriton, PA (May 16, 2013) – Come celebrate people, parks, and puppies at this fun-raising event to support the 690-acre Norristown Farm Park. There will be many activities including, a dog walk, kids’ crafts, and a bluebird hike. A scavenger hunt will explore field, farm, forest, and stream. Come meet Johnny Angel, the little canine conservation hero who helped save this park from development. He and his human co-author will be on hand (and paw) to sell and sign copies of their award winning children’s picture book “Bark! Bark! Bark for My Park!” a true story of civic engagement. The Elmwood Park Zoo will be among the many exhibitors and vendors providing information, demonstrations, and services to make this a memorable day of fun, food, and festivities.

Norristown Farm Park is owned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources / Bureau of State Parks and is managed by Montgomery County Parks, Trails, and Historic Sites, a division of the Department of Assets and Infrastructure. This event is co-hosted by Montgomery County Parks, Trails, and Historic Sites and the Farm Park Preservation Association, a 501(c) (3) organization.
