Pennypacker Mills Presents In The Good Old Summertime *Summertime Fun For All Ages

Schwenksville, PA (July 22, 2013) – Bring the family for a day of free fun Saturday, August 3, 2013 from 11:00am to 3:00pm as Pennypacker Mills celebrates all the old-fashioned outdoor activities that were enjoyed during days of summer one hundred years ago!

- Meet Bob Swain, “The Bike Guy,” who will amaze visitors with his collection of antique and modern bicycles, some of which will be available to ride.
- Enjoy the music and songs of Cracked Walnuts, a washboard duo, who will entertain everyone with popular songs from the 19th century out on the mansion porch.
- Stop by the Vintage Photograph Venue, dress up in period clothing, and create unique pictures to share with family and friends.
- Play Victorian lawn games and have the kids make summer crafts.
- Take a walk through the Children’s Heritage Garden and find out about the heirloom varieties that are grown there.
- Stop by the 1900s History Center (located in the red barn), where exhibits and hands-on fun always await.
- Visit the car show, hosted by the Delaware Valley Classic MG Car Club.
- Take a tour of the beautiful (and air-conditioned) Pennypacker Mansion.
