Green Lane Park Features Celtic Music from “Tree”

Green Lane, PA (August 30, 2013) – Once again returning to Green Lane Park Amphitheater on Saturday, September 7, 2013 at 5:00pm, is the popular musical group “Tree!” Tree combines elements of traditional Irish, Celtic rock, bluegrass, and old-time music into a lively and unique sound that is all their own. With instrumentation including guitar, fiddle, bass, and drums, this tight-knit group creates up-beat and eclectic music that is sure to have listeners tapping their toes from the first to last note.

Admission is free! Please bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on, as this activity will be held outside and will occur weather permitting.

The Green Lane Park Amphitheater is located on Green Lane Road in Green Lane, PA. From Route 29 take Park Road and stay left onto Green Lane Road to the park entrance. For more information please visit <http://www.montcopa.org/index.aspx?nid=871> or call the park office at 215-234-4528.
