Montgomery County Planning Commission Open House

Norristown, PA (February 6, 2014) – The Montgomery County Planning Commission (MCPC) is having an open house on Wednesday, February 12 from 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. in Suite 201 in One Montgomery Plaza, 425 Swede Street, Norristown, PA.

The public is invited to come and meet members of the planning commission board, learn about the planning commission, and network with other community leaders. While touring the office, participants will have a chance to talk with staff, find out how the commission works, view displays and demonstrations, and share information and insights.

At both 4:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m., there will be a presentation on the new county comprehensive plan. A presentation on hot planning topics in Montgomery County will be offered both at 4:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

“This is a wonderful opportunity for constituents and community leaders to meet the planning commission staff and learn about all the resources MCPC has to offer,” said Commissioner Leslie Richards. “There will also be the chance to learn about the county comprehensive plan and to offer input on the planning process and the future of Montgomery County.”

Registration for the open house is recommended, but not required. Register online and check out additional 2014 events and opportunities at www.montcopa.org/PlanningSmarter. Contact Rita McKelvey at 610-278-3753 for additional information.
