Backyard Poultry Chat at the Peter Wentz Farmstead
Saturday, May 10, 2014 from 10:00am-1:00pm

Worcester, PA (May 7, 2014) – Ever thought about raising chickens or have questions about a personal flock? Visit the historic Peter Wentz Farmstead in Worcester on Saturday, May 10, 2014 between 10:00am and 1:00pm to learn more about the many aspects of raising chickens from the 18th century to today.

Visitors to the Farmstead have surely noticed the small flock of chickens in the chicken yard. This animal has long been valued for its eggs, feathers, and meat. Join the Wentz Farmers in an open discussion about breeds of chickens, feed, water, housing, and other details.

For more information about this program and others, please call the Peter Wentz Farmstead at 610-584-5104. The Peter Wentz Farmstead is located at 2030 Shearer Road in Lansdale, PA. The restored 18th century Pennsylvania German historic site is owned and operated by the County of Montgomery and receives support from the Peter Wentz Farmstead Society. The site is open Tuesday through Saturday from 10:00am to 4:00pm and Sunday from 1:00pm to 4:00pm with guided tours every forty-five minutes. Events take place rain or shine. There is no admission charge. Visit the website at:
