The Alfred James Band Free Outdoor Summer Concert at the Green Lane Park Amphitheater

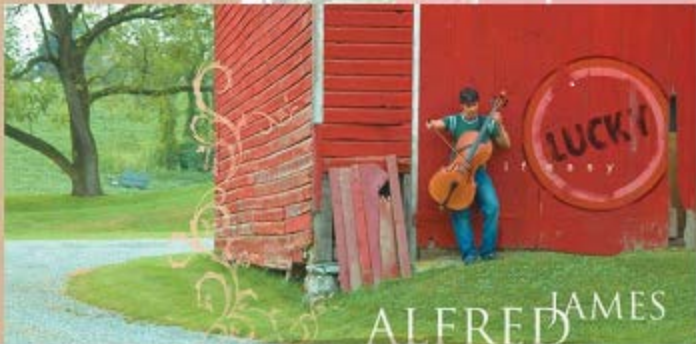

Green Lane, PA (June 9, 2014) – Celebrate summer at Montgomery County’s first free outdoor concert at Green Lane Park featuring the Alfred James Band on Saturday, June 14, 2014 from 7:00pm to 9:00pm. Be sure to bring a blanket or chair!

The Alfred James Band (AJB) is making waves with their cello-driven acoustic rock sound. The band has played an impressive array of venues including the White House, NBC's "The Today Show," ABC's "Good Morning America," Carnegie Hall, The Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, and The Academy of Music. Inspired by a variety of musicians including YoYo Ma, Sting, and Dave Matthews, Alfred James reminds audiences that the cello isn't just for classical music anymore! AJB is currently in the studio recording their second album with Grammy winning producer, Ian Cross, slated for release this summer.

The Green Lane Park Amphitheater is located at 2298 Green Lane Road near the intersection of Green Lane Road and Hill Road, just off Route 29, in Green Lane, Pennsylvania.

Green Lane Park is operated by Montgomery County under the direction of the Parks, Trails, and Historic Sites Division. For more information, please call 215-234-4528, or visit:
