“Celebrating America” Summer Concert at Green Lane Park

Green Lane, PA (July 15, 2014) – Bring family, friends, neighbors, and folding chairs to listen to the music of the 78th Army Band “Celebrating America” on Tuesday, July 22, 2014 at 7:00PM. The concert will take place at Montgomery County’s Green Lane Park amphitheater.

This concert will feature the Big Band, which plays Jazz from different eras and the Concert Band, which plays “Americana” music. The 78th Army Band is the musical ambassador for the 99th RSC, United States Army Reserve and is under the command of WO2 Eric Flowers and First Sergeant Trevor Sanders. The 78th Army Band consists of over 30 talented musicians from Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania. Band members are called upon as Army Reservists to provide entertainment for civic and military ceremonies, parades, and concerts. The mission of the band is to furnish music whenever and wherever assigned while serving the Nation and the community.

The Green Lane Park Amphitheater is located at 2298 Green Lane Road, just off of Deep Creek Road or Hill Road, easily accessible from Route 29, in Green Lane, Pennsylvania. Green Lane Park is operated by Montgomery County under the direction of the Parks, Trails, and Historic Sites Division. For more information, please call the park office at 215-234-4528 or visit: www.montcopa.org/greenlanepark.
