Night Life Program at the Peter Wentz Farmstead
Thursday, October 16, 2014 at 7:30pm

Worcester, PA (October 10, 2014) – What happened at the Wentz House in the fall and winter after the sun went down? What was it like to suddenly have the army headquartered in their home? Visit the historic Peter Wentz Farmstead on Thursday, October 16, 2014 to explore night life in the eighteenth century. Tours begin at 7:30pm. Pre-registration is required for this special evening program, which is suitable for visitors ages 12 and older. A $2.00 donation per person is suggested.

Visitors will enjoy a lantern-lit tour of the historic house to learn about life after sunset and during the cooler weather in a home like the Wentz's. Most people, including children, stayed awake until 9 o'clock or 10 o'clock at night, which left plenty of time for indoor activities such as chores and reading before bedtime. Imagine travelling alone on horseback at night and only having the moon to light the way or walking through a dark and chilly house while hosting military personnel! Experience night life like people did during colonial times at the historic Peter Wentz Farmstead.

For more information about this program and others, please call the Peter Wentz Farmstead at 610-584-5104 or visit www.montcopa.org/peterwentzfarmstead. The restored 18th century Pennsylvania German historic site is owned and operated by the County of Montgomery and receives support from the Peter Wentz Farmstead Society. The site is regularly open Tuesday through Saturday from 10:00am to 4:00pm and Sunday from 1:00pm to 4:00pm with guided tours every forty-five minutes. The Peter Wentz Farmstead is located at 2030 Shearer Road in Lansdale, PA 19446.
