Montgomery County Commissioners to Hold Second in Series of “Conversations” with Residents

Norristown, PA (March 2, 2015) – The Montgomery County Commissioners will hold the second of six “Conversations with your Commissioners” on Wednesday, March 4 at 7 p.m. at The Grand Theater, 252 Main Street, East Greenville.

The series of town hall meetings give residents of the county the opportunity to discuss a wide range of subjects with the commissioners.

“The first two series of conversations proved to us how large and diverse our wonderful county is,” said Josh Shapiro, chair of the commissioners. “While residents throughout the county want their county government to be responsive and efficient, there was a wide range of issues raised depending on the part of the county we were visiting, and gave the commissioners a real sense of what issues were on people’s minds.”

The first of the 2015 series of town halls was recently held in Ambler. The remainder of the “Conversations” schedule is:
