The Chickens at the Peter Wentz Farmstead
Saturday, May 9, 2015 from 10:00am-1:00pm

Worcester, PA (May 4, 2015) – Visit the historic Peter Wentz Farmstead in Worcester on Saturday, May 9, 2015 between 10:00am and 1:00pm to learn about the proper care of chickens in the past and present.

The Peter Wentz Farmstead maintains a small flock of chickens at the site and will be sharing some of the lessons learned over the years. Learn about the proper care of this common farm animal and suggestions to start a small flock at home. The program will inform guests about the historic types of chickens favored in this part of the state and the changes in care and breeding that have occurred over the centuries.

Tours of the historic Wentz home will also be offered on the hour throughout the day. A suggested donation of $2.00 per person is greatly appreciated.

The Peter Wentz Farmstead is located at 2030 Shearer Road in Lansdale, PA. For more information about this program and others, please call the Peter Wentz Farmstead at 610-584-5104 or visit www.montcopa.org/peterwentzfarmstead. The restored 18th century Pennsylvania German historic site is owned and operated by the County of Montgomery and receives support from the Peter Wentz Farmstead Society. The site is regularly open Tuesday through Saturday from 10:00am to 4:00pm and Sunday from 1:00pm to 4:00pm with guided tours offered on the hour. The last tour of the day begins at 3:00pm.
