Community Connections Navigate with the Montgomery County-Norristown Public Library Bookmobile
Friday, June 5, 2015 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Hatfield, PA (May 27, 2015) – Priya Bell, a navicate in the Montgomery County Community Connections' Lansdale office, will be with the Montgomery County-Norristown Public Library Bookmobile at its stop at Ralph's Corner in Hatfield on Friday, June 5, 2015. The county has established Community Connections offices throughout the county, and as a navicate, Bell helps those who need to access social services to navigate the system and advocates for them. She will be with the Bookmobile in Hatfield from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Residents will have the opportunity to talk to Bell before or after they visit the Bookmobile to learn more about Community Connections, ask about human services, or schedule a time to call or meet with Bell at her office.

Community Connections is committed to serving Montgomery County residents close to their homes. Bell's partnership with the Bookmobile gives her the opportunity to meet residents in their neighborhood for easier and more convenient access to the services Community Connections provides.
