Native American Day at Norristown Farm Park
Sunday, September 27, 2015 from 10:00am to 3:00pm

East Norriton, PA (September 21, 2015) – Come and see Native American stone artifacts, flint knapping demonstrations, jewelry, displays of Lenape culture including clothing, tools, foods, animal pelts, and bones at Native American Day at Norristown Farm Park on Sunday, September 27, 2015 from 10:00am to 3:00pm. The rain date is Sunday, October 4, 2015.

Lee Hallman, president of the Indian Artifact Collectors Association of the Northeast, will display many artifacts. Feel free to bring personal artifacts for a free appraisal. There will be Native American games and crafts for children.

Native American Day festivities will be held at the pavilions, parking lot #3. Both the event and parking are free. Preregistration is not required. For further information about this event, please call Norristown Farm Park at 610-270-0215. Visit Norristown Farm Park online at:
