Pennypacker Mills' All Hallows' Eve Fall Festival
Saturday, October 17, 2015 from 1:00pm to 4:00pm

Schwenksville, PA (October 13, 2015) – With leaves changing colors and crisp fall air, historic Pennypacker Mills will host their annual All Hallows' Eve Fall Festival on Saturday, October 17, 2015 from 1:00pm to 4:00pm. This free event has something for every age. Come for a fun time for the whole family time.

Take a tractor-pulled hayride through the meadow enjoying the view of the countryside. Kids can choose their favorite pumpkin and paint it with a variety of colors and their own design, as well as make creative fall crafts, try their hand at shucking corn the way farmers did to feed their farm animals, shred and then press apples with the apple cider press, jump in the hay pile, and throw bean bags into giant pumpkin face cut-outs. Enjoy a cup of apple cider, candy corn, and cookies too.

The Museum Shop will be located on the mansion porch stocked with old-fashioned stick candy and caramels, children's games, and vintage-inspired cards and gift items. Stop by and pick up some local honey that comes from the Pennypacker Mills' bee hives.

Home to Pennsylvania Governor Samuel Pennypacker (1903-1907) and his family, this early 20th century historic site is open year-round offering tours, seasonal events, educational programs, and changing exhibits.
