Cory Callender

Julian Johnson

Andrew Lewis

NORRISTOWN, Pa.--Montgomery County District Attorney Kevin R. Steele and Towamencin Township Police Chief Paul "Tim" Dickerson announce the arrest of Corey "Infamous Prime" Callender, 25, Julian "JuJu Swank" Johnson, 19, and Andrew "Kahlil" Lewis, 22, all of Towamencin, on charges of Possession with Intent to Deliver, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, Criminal Conspiracy and other related charges.

The arrest of the three men comes following an investigation that included several controlled buys of heroin led by Towamencin Detective Patrick Horne, with the assistance of the Montgomery County Detective Narcotics Enforcement Team. During the execution of search warrants on the three individual residences, 1,208 bags of heroin stamped an "Octopus" were found along with $18,000 cash, drug paraphernalia related to drug trafficking and other items. The street value of the seized heroin is more than $12,000.

Johnson was arrested today and arraigned before Magisterial District Judge Edward Levine, who set bail at $75,000 cash. Callender and Lewis were also arraigned by Judge Levine, and their bail was set at $150,000 cash. All three men were remanded to the Montgomery County Correctional Facility. Their preliminary hearing is scheduled for 1 p.m., August 3, 2016 before Judge Levine.

The case will be prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Robert Kolansky.
