FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FREE "TOUCH A TRUCK" EVENT IN NORRISTOWN TO FEATURE 30 VEHICLES AS WELL AS MEET-AND-GREET WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (Aug. 2, 2018)—The Montgomery County District Attorney's Office in conjunction with the Norristown Municipal Police Department will be hosting a "Touch A Truck" event at Eisenhower Middle School in Norristown from 5 to 8 p.m., on Monday, August 6. The family friendly event will feature more than 30 different trucks, skid loaders, construction vehicles, working vehicles, emergency response vehicles and a state-of-the-art medical transport helicopter.

This free event will offer children and families a chance to look at, get into, touch and otherwise interact with a variety of different vehicles and their operators to learn about their functions. (Parental supervision is required.)

"Touch A Truck" will also allow children to meet and talk with Norristown Police, Assistant District Attorneys and members of the Montgomery County Detective Bureau.
