FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOMICIDE POTTSTOWN

Still images from surveillance camera located inside the residence.

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (Nov 21, 2018) — Montgomery County District Attorney Kevin R. Steele and Pottstown Borough Police Chief Michael J. Markovich are requesting assistance in identifying the persons responsible for the homicide of Sylvia Williams, age 38. The homicide occurred inside her residence at 351 North Washington Street Pottstown Borough on November 18, 2018. Williams died as a result of a gunshot wound to the head.

Investigation has revealed two masked suspects entered the residence during a home invasion and fired striking Williams. The home contained a video surveillance system which captured the incident. See attached photographs.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Pottstown Borough Police Department at 610-970-6570 or the Montgomery County Detective Bureau at 610-278-3368.

Tips may also be submitted to the STOPit application. Montgomery County has introduced a new anonymous crime fighting application for apple and android phones. Please download STOPit to your phone by using code MONTCOPA to provide any information.
