NORRISTOWN, Pa. (Sept. 6, 2019) — Montgomery County District Attorney Kevin R. Steele and Pottstown Borough Police Chief Michael J. Markovich announce the arrest of Elijah Davis, 18, of Pottstown, for the murder of Keith Robinson on March 30, 2019. Police are still searching for Derrick Goins, 26, of Pottstown who is 5-feet, 8-inches tall and weighs approximately 130 pounds. A $1,000 reward is offered for information leading to Goins' arrest.

Davis was arrested today in North Hampton County and charged with First-Degree murder and related charges. He was arraigned before Magisterial District Justice Scott J. Palladino. No bail is available for First-Degree Murder, and he was remanded to the Montgomery County Correctional Facility. A preliminary hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m., Sept. 18, 2019, before Judge Palladino.

Co-defendants, Kyshan Brinkley, 23, and Jacquan Lee, 26, both of Pottstown, were arrested on Aug. 1, 2019, and charged with First-Degree Murder and related charges.

Pottstown Police found Robinson in his car, dead of multiple gunshot wounds at 10:53 p.m., on Saturday, March 30, 2019. Robinson was shot through the window of his vehicle at the corner of Walnut Street and York Street.

To obtain the reward money, anyone with information on the whereabouts of Goins should call the Pottstown Police Department at 610-970-6570 or Montgomery County Detectives at 610-226-5553.

Approved for release:

Kevin R. Steele
