Pennypacker Mills presents “The Essentials of a Proper Etiquette”

Schwenksville, PA (March 13, 2012) – Have you ever thought how many of us don’t know what the appropriate utensil is for eating a strawberry, or how to properly eat a tart? Better yet, do your children or grandchildren know? We have the solution!

Register today for Pennypacker Mills’ “The Essentials of a Proper Etiquette” program, scheduled for Saturday, April 28th from 2 to 3:30 pm. The program is designed for mothers and their daughters or grandmothers and their granddaughters to enjoy an afternoon where they will learn the basics of etiquette within the setting of a casual afternoon Victorian tea. What a special gift for Mother’s Day!

This program is geared for children ages 10+ and adults. The presentation will include understanding the place setting, utensils that are used with a variety of foods, and proper conversation and conduct for the table. Towards the end of the presentation everyone will partake of tea and a small selection of desserts where you will have to use your new-found knowledge of etiquette to decide how to eat those sweet treats!

This program will take place in our newly renovated Classroom Building. The fee is $12.50 per person and is by pre-registration & pre-payment only. There is limited enrollment so register today by contacting the site at 610-287-9349 for registration and additional information.

Pennypacker Mills Historic Site is operated by the Montgomery County Department of Parks & Heritage Services and is one of four heritage sites, nine parks and a regional trail system of over 50 miles managed by Montgomery County.

Located at the intersection of Skippack Pike (Route 73) and Haldeman Road in Schwenksville, Pennypacker Mills offers guided tours, changing exhibits, seasonal events, and educational programs.

For more information, contact Linda Callegari, Assistant Administrator at 610-287-9349 or email her at lcallega@montcopa.org.