Do You Know The Muhlenbergs?
Wednesday, May 2nd at 7:00pm

Worcester, PA (April 30, 2012) - The Muhlenberg family were prominent leaders of our young nation during the 18th century. Historian Lisa Minardi will talk about the influence the Muhlenbergs had in our region’s history during this program on Wednesday, May 2nd at 7pm at the Farmers’ Union Hall located at 2011 Valley Forge Road in Worcester.

Discover the roles Lutheran minister Reverend Henry Melchior, his sons Frederick, first speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, and General Peter played in the history of the region and the nation. Lisa has researched these remarkable people and many of the objects associated with them. Her recent book, Pastors & Patriots: The Muhlenberg Family of Pennsylvania, will be available for purchase and signing. A donation of $2 per person is suggested.

For more information about this program and others, please call the Peter Wentz Farmstead at 610-584-5104 or visit www.historicsites.montcopa.org. The restored 18th century Pennsylvania German historic site is owned and operated by the County of Montgomery and receives support from the Peter Wentz Farmstead Society.
