Montco Commissioners to hold night meeting
At Audubon Center at Mill Grove

Norristown, PA (May 31, 2012) – In an effort to bring county government closer to the people, the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners will conduct one of its public meetings on Wednesday, June 6 at 6 p.m. at the John James Audubon Center at Mill Grove.

The commissioners usually hold their meetings on the first and third Thursdays of the month in their board room in One Montgomery Plaza in Norristown.

“We promised to make our government more accessible, more transparent, and more people-friendly,” said Josh Shapiro, chair of the board. “One of the ways we plan to do this is to hold periodic meetings of the board throughout the county so that residents, who normally cannot make a weekday meeting, will be able to attend a meeting.”

Mill Grove is located at 1201 Pawlings Road in Audubon. The entrance is at the intersection of Pawlings and Audubon Roads.
