The Extinction Tour
Saturday, October 27, 2012 at 3:00pm

Royersford, PA (October 24, 2012) – Come visit Upper Schuylkill Valley Park on Saturday, October 27 at 3:00pm to tour the Extinction Cemetery. Visitors will learn about animals from Pennsylvania that are close to extinction and others that have already gone extinct. Folks will be surprised to learn what animals have roamed this area, and when they were last seen here. This family friendly event will include information on how kids can help animals. A hands-on project will be part of the program, showing visitors how to enhance the habitat for local animals by making areas for animals to use for cover.

All ages are welcome for this family event. There is a $2.00 per person suggested donation. This event is weather permitting as all of the activities will be held outdoors. Participants should come dressed for the outdoors and for a minimal amount of walking.

Upper Schuylkill Valley Park is located on Rt. 113 in Royersford, PA, directly across from Parkhouse (Montgomery County Geriatric Center). The park is open year-round, except on major holidays. For more information about the park, please visit http://parks.montcopa.org and click on Upper Schuylkill Valley Park. For further information about this program, please call 610-948-5170.
