FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 12, 2012

Office of Developmental Disabilities: Supports Coordination Organization Transition

Norristown, PA (December 12, 2012) – The Montgomery County Office of Developmental Disabilities understands and respects the role that Supports Coordinators play in the circle of support for loved ones. They are committed to ensuring that information is available to assist all Montgomery County consumers with a smooth transition to a new Supports Coordination Organization (SCO).

In response to these needs, the Office of Developmental Disabilities has provided helpful facts, a brief overview of each organization, answers to several frequently asked questions, and links to the necessary documents to complete the process. The Supports Coordination Organization Transition information is posted on the county webpage for reference and review at http://mhmrda.montcopa.org/mhmrda/cwp/view,A,1587,Q,88894.asp.

Please contact the Office of Developmental Disabilities at 610-278-3642 with any questions about the process or next steps, or for more information about the Supports Coordination Transition Process.

Thank you for your understanding during this time of transition.
