The Sheriff's Office Scholarship Fund endowment has been established by a partnership between the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office and the Montgomery County Community College Foundation to assist employees of the MCSO and their families in reaching their educational goals, through degree programs at Montgomery County Community College.

Our goal is to remain the best sheriff's office in the Commonwealth by serving residents with honesty, integrity and transparency. Your contribution can help our law enforcement and administrative staff achieve the highest levels of professional development, while providing the highest level of service.
