Wissahickon School District Veterans Memorial

Wissahickon School District seeks to honor the veterans who bravely served our country. The Wissahickon Education Opportunities Foundation is collecting funds to build a memorial, and create a space within the school to honor Wissahickon graduates who served in the military. Please visit www.weof.org for more information.

PA Hometown Heroes Walk

Lansdale will once again kick off the Hometown Heroes Walk to raise money and support for our local heroes. The event will be held rain or shine on May 12th. Registration begins at 8:30am. Please contact Bish Reig at 215.362.1089 or lansdalewalk@verizon.net. You can also visit their website: http://www.paherowalk.com/phwlansdale.php. We will be in attendance issuing discount IDs, so please feel free to stop by and say hello!

Funeral for Army Veteran—Mr. Lawrence Gregory Moore

Mr. Lawrence Gregory Moore was born in Philadelphia and graduated from Thomas Edison High School. He enlisted into the US Army and served 20 years. He was honorably discharged. Mr. Moore will be laid to rest with full military honors. Unfortunately, friends and family for Mr. Moore could not be located despite several years of attempts. Anyone who feels compelled is welcome to attend and pay tribute to Mr. Moore. The funeral will be held on April 27th, 2018 at 1:30pm at Whitemarsh Cemetery 1169 Limeclin Pike, Ambler, PA 19002.

Gold Star Mothers Fundraiser
