Montco Sheriff's Office rounds up more deadbeat parents in overnight campaign

Norristown, Pa., (April 24, 2014) – Seven deadbeat parents were arrested overnight during an unannounced raid starting at 1:00 a.m. and are being held pending a hearing by Hon. Judge Kelly C. Wall at the Montgomery County Courthouse. The defendants collectively owe $143,466 in unpaid support to 12 children. The largest amount owed by one defender, who was picked up during the roundup, is $57,342.54.

“We’re taking a new approach,” said Sheriff Russell Bono. “I don’t want these deadbeat parents to ever feel comfortable.”

Montgomery County Sheriff’s Office deputies combed several areas including Norristown, Plymouth Meeting, Willow Grove, Glenside and Hatboro, Pa., on a search for 30 defendants with active warrants for delinquent support payments for 55 children totaling $396,318.

“I want to thank the Domestic Relations Office Director Gary Kline for his assistance and cooperation, Bono said. “I look forward to our continued partnership.” Bono said the Sheriff’s Office will continue to seek delinquent parents on a regular and unannounced basis, no matter what amount they owe.
