Montco Sheriff's Office arrests seven in overnight DRO raid

Three additional Most Wanted criminal fugitives have been captured over the past 10 days

Norristown, Pa., (June 3, 2015) – Montgomery County Sheriff Russell Bono's deputies arrested seven male deadbeat parents, who failed to pay a total of $71,331.71 in child support for 13 kids, during an overnight sweep on the early morning of June 3, 2015. One of the captured defendants, Jeremy Bowers of Phoenixville, Pa., was also wanted in Berks County for simple assault and failure to appear. James Licwinko, who was also detained, owed the most money with a total of $36,447.67 in child support arrears for two kids.

Fourteen deputies, including two K9 units, targeted Norristown, Pottstown, Collegeville, Phoenixville and other areas in Berks and Chester counties with a list of 27 defendants who owed a total of $423,054.62 for 41 kids.

"We do these regular raids, but we are picking up domestic relations and criminal defendants and fugitives all of the time," said Bono. "Our Warrants Division has been extremely busy over the past year."

Within the past 10 days, the Warrants Division has arrested three Most Wanted criminal fugitives:

- James Turner was wanted for an APO parole violation and robbery. He was picked up by Norristown Police Department on May 22, 2015.
- Sean Kehoe was wanted for Domestic Relations Office and criminal warrants such as failure to appear for formal arraignment and trial, theft by unlawful taking, and aggravated assault. Kehoe was picked up on May 29, 2015 in Schuylkill County and placed in the Schuylkill County Jail.
- Karonna Shanita Little was picked up on a phone tip on June 1, 2015. Little was Most Wanted for identity theft, theft by unlawful taking, probation violation and failure to appear for sentencing.

Since Bono started this operation in April 2014, 985 warrants have been received. Five hundred seventy-six defendants, of which 363 turned themselves in, were detained by the MCSO and owed a total of $4,477,729 for 704 kids.

Five defendants listed below, who were not captured during the raid, are now on the “Most Wanted” list for Domestic Relations.

“As always, we encourage defendants to turn themselves in so that they don’t have to see their name and picture plastered all over television and social media,” said Bono.
